Our virtual school

Our virtual school has a very intuitive and easy-to-use platform. You can take the courses online or in real time in groups or private videoconference lessons according to the chosen method.

It enables the learning of the languages we offer with native teachers without any restrictions on place, distance or schedule.

We are linguistic providers. If you have a training centre or your company works in teaching, we offer you our LMS platform to expand your training offer with our online courses as a "collaborating partner".

OUR ONLINE SCHOOL

You can participate in our online courses, or study live through videoconferencing. We offer up to 9 languages.

You can access our courses from anywhere in the world without time restrictions.
